HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN COINS RIGHT NOW, 2ND EDITION

by SCOTT A. TRAVERS

"Don't go to a coin dealer without reading this book first."
– Hank Gilman, Business Editor, NEWSWEEK

"If making money by buying and selling coins is your game, Scott Travers' How to Make Money in Coins Right Now is a must-read. As an insider, he puts you on the playing field with the pros. Chapter by chapter, he reveals strategies for being a winner."
– Beth Deisher, Editor, Coin World

"The most valuable book ever written on how to profit from coins."
– Ed Reiter, Senior Editor, COINage magazine

"A revolutionary book."
– Armen R. Vartian, Legal Counsel, Professional Numismatists Guild

"A no-holds barred examination of insider secrets that can be used for startling, quick profits. Stands alone as the most penetrating guide of its kind ever published."
– Maurice Rosen, Rosen Numismatic Advisory

Ultimate insider Scott Travers shows you the tricks of the trade with clear examples of how you, too, can outsmart the grading services. You'll get information never revealed before from experts who have handled hundreds of millions of dollars worth of rare coins. Here are just some of the many topics covered:

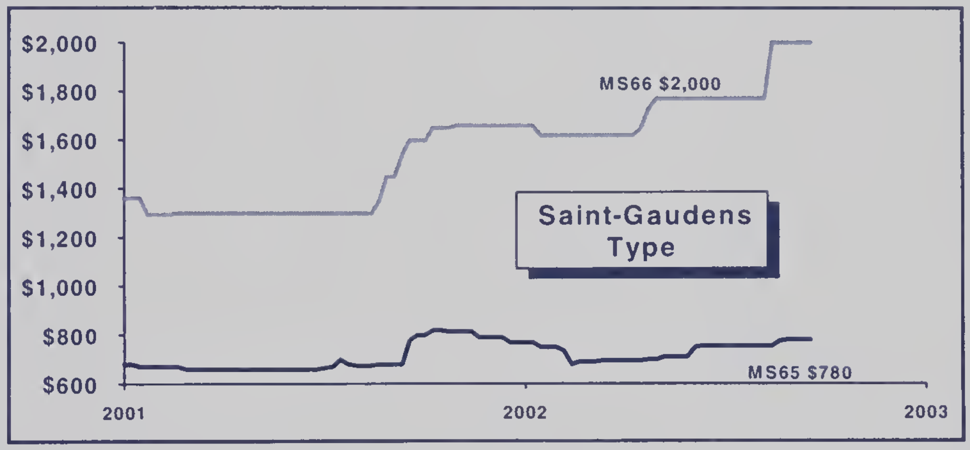
Saints March To Higher Ground Impressive Sight-Unseen Bids Expand

Most dealers say that the current market and its immediate outlook is just "too good." This optimism is readily seen from the strong collector/investor demand that exists today. Most are equally encouraged about the future of the market. This is true because dealers tell us that they have many customers waiting to buy rare coins and that new faces are appearing daily. However, these dealers are still hampered by the difficulty in locating these coins. Another thing that is slowing some of them down is their current poor cash position. This condition has come about as July and August auction bills are due and need to be paid. Still, they know that they need to be aggressive buyers if they are to have any success with their task at hand. They are very aware that the competition for select coins is keen so they need to go that extra mile to put themselves in a favorable position. Many dealers are preparing for the September 26-29 Long Beach Expo in California. This show, and several auctions scheduled surrounding it, should provide some help to those in need of material.



Some of today's market strength was seen this past September 13-14 at the Las Vegas Trade & Grade event for a select group of dealers. NGC was on-hand to grade coins on site within 24 hours. Dealers in attendance were looking to buy rare coins to fill their needs. What kind of coins are dealers searching for today? We are often told that they just want to buy any rare coin that they find with attractive eye appeal and that is a good value for the money. These are the coins that they are trying to buy for their customers and these are the coins that remain in very short supply today. On the bright side, dealers are impressed with the scope of today's market. They are happy to report that many areas of the market, from circulated to gem and from common to rare are doing extremely well. One dealer said that even generic Gold was beginning to perk-up. Still, another dealer had nothing but praises for early Type. The classic early series of coins have been extremely hot. Dealers from all around the country are trying to buy early Flowing Hair and Bust material. However, we see that the early Proof Sets and Singles from 1936-42 are equally as hot. We believe that this lateral market strength is growing even wider. Consequently, it's easy to see that while one area remains in short supply, another area that may be a little more available is quickly pounced upon.

Dealers are telling us that the increased sight-unseen Bids haven't satisfied all their demand. Strong Bidding is taking place in the market but few transactions are occurring. Coins have to be available before trades can take place and, unfortunately, sellers are waiting for higher levels. Buyers are looking for many different dates and denominations of rare coins today. They are trying to buy interesting coins that will be ready sellers to their customers. As one dealer already stated, even generic Gold is showing more life. This can be readily seen by our $20 Saint-Gaudens chart this week. Sight-unseen Bids are increasing with plus signs found all over our NGC and PCGS Bid columns for Saints. However it is not only the common Saints that are advancing. Careful observation of these charts will prove there's strong demand for four and five figure Saints as well. Dealers have increased their sight-unseen Bids for these rather expensive rare coins. Obviously, they know that there are eager buyers waiting to accumulate this kind of material. Besides Gold, increased sight-unseen Bids are evident this week for several Red and Brown Braided Hair Large Cents listed on our Mint State Type chart. Dealers know that many areas of the market remain undervalued and they are trying to take advantage of some of these situations. Some Morgan Dollars are increasing but don't let the absence of plus signs mislead you. That's because we known that most areas of the sight-unseen market are realizing supporting Bids at current levels.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www cdnpublications com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

The customers of The King of Cash are having another record year! They are receiving funds from Spectrum Numismatics at a record rate, because they know The King of Cash needs more coins than ever for our ever-growing client base. Why are dealers, collectors, investors, and financial institutions coming to us at a record rate?

Same day funds—There's no waiting around with The King of Cash. You will receive immediate payment for your coins.

Numismatic expertise—The Spectrum staff has over 150 years of combined numismatic experience. No matter how specialized or diverse your holdings may be, Spectrum knows what your coins are worth.

Financial stability—Spectrum has unlimited funds available for purchasing rare coins. In fact, one of the largest transactions in the history of numismatics was purchased by Spectrum for cash.

The King of Cash buys it all—Our purchases include coins for under $4 and over $1,000,000! No matter what your holdings include, Spectrum is interested. It makes no difference if your coins are certified or not. Your coins can be a collection, hoard, dealer inventory, investor lot, family estate, or any other type of property.

Here's what some of Spectrum's satisfied clients have to say:
This is just a note to say "thank you" for the prompt attention, courteous service, and fair prices I received for the sale of my collection. Mr. Thad Olson is extremely knowledgeable, and I felt at ease and quite confident in dealing with him. His offer was more than 20% higher than I received elsewhere, which was both a pleasant surprise and a wonderful bonus for dealing with your company. I would certainly recommend Spectrum to my friends and associates without reservation.

I was very pleased with your offer. I also appreciated being spared the "critical analysis" most dealers feel they must go through before making an offer. I'm just sorry I didn't try your firm long ago. I'm convinced after my first sale to you that Spectrum is the place to go if you want honesty and fair dealing.

I have done business with Spectrum for the past eight years and every transaction has been totally satisfactory. Whether it was my most recent sale ($700) or the one in 1995 for over $100,000 (remember that one?) everyone has been friendly, professional, and fair.

Spectrum has a commitment to customer satisfaction that is unsurpassed in the rare coin industry. Let us help you to realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you.

Walker Sight-Unseen Trades Prevalent Long Beach Activity Upbeat

Now that 75 percent of 2002 is completed in what has been a banner year for rare coins, the demand that has pushed Bids higher throughout the year continues to be a driving factor as we begin the final quarter. This demand was seen in early action at the September 26-29 Long Beach Expo in California. Dealer set-up day, September 25, was busy with many buying and selling rare coins on the bourse. Of course most of them were unable to have all their needs satisfied as the want lists are long and the supplies short, but we know that business was still being done. Dealers that we spoke with on the bourse were generally upbeat regarding the market and its activity level. One dealer said that "Dollars and Gold" were in heavy demand. Morgan Dollar key and semi-key dates are among those coins on today's lengthy want lists. Better date Morgans grading MS65 and MS66 were sold at Long Beach. Some of these include an 1878 8 Tail Feather in MS65, 1888-S in MS-65 and a 1902-S in MS65. Yes, "CC" Dollars are still hot and that was in evidence at the show as well. Peace Dollar keys are also generating strong demand. A 1934-S in MS65 changed hands at Long Beach. The explanation given by one dealer at the show was that "there's such a shortage of material [to buy that] it's incredible." Generic Gold is hot with dealers reporting $20 Liberty and Saint-Gauden issues as strong sellers. Gold demand is heaviest for those specimens grading MS63 and better.

SUPERIOR DATE	DENOMINATION	GRADE	PRICE REALIZED
1793	Flowing Hair Wreath Cent, S-8	PCGS MS63B	$32,775
1898	Liberty Nickel	NGC MS67	$5,175
1795	Flowing Hair Half Dollar	PCGS AU55	$11,788
1808	Capped Bust Half Dollar	NGC MS65	$10,350
1880	Trade Dollar	NGC PR65	$8,625
1895	Morgan Dollar, Deep Cameo	PCGS PR67	$80,500
1854	$1 Indian Type II	PCGS MS65	$35,650
1893	Isabella Quarter Commemorative	NGC MS67	$5,175

Dealers were making the rounds trying to find coins to satisfy their want lists. Besides the want lists, one dealer said he was just looking to buy "something that grabs me." Dealers are looking for interesting coins that are well struck and have good eye appeal. Of course, a coin has to be priced so the dealer can still make a profit no matter how nice the coin appears. Many dealers choose to specialize in one area or another as it allows them to better service collector/investors that have specific interests. Dealers are aware that the mindset of today's collector/investors leans towards affordable and value added rare coins.

The sight-unseen market is still active with many supporting Bids as well as some notable Bid increases. This week, the plus/minus count is dominated by the plus signs at 228 to 32. Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Morgan Dollars are the most active areas of the sight-unseen market. Dealers have increased Bid for many of the later date Walkers in MS65 thru MS67. The majority of the increases are occurring for dates from 1940 thru 1947. These increases are targeting Half Dollars struck at the Philadelphia, Denver and San Francisco Mints. Additionally, dealers at the show also told us that early Proof Singles from 1936-1942 are extremely hot. Buyers are especially looking to buy Walking Liberty Half Dollar Proofs. This demand, coupled with the many increases have also triggered some sight-unseen trades on the electronic dealer network. An early Walker, 1917-D in PCGS MS63 traded for $445; an NGC MS66 1941-S brought $2,300; an NGC MS66 1944-S traded for $1,820; an NGC MS66 1945-S traded at $725; and a pair of NGC PR67 1936 Walkers traded for $12,800 each. Gold Commemoratives are also displaying some Bid increases this week after a period of steady support. Plus signs are appearing for select issues in MS66. Mint State and Proof Type is steady with buyers out there looking to add a few to their inventory. Otherwise, supporting Bids are omnipresent for many series of coins with buyers overwhelming sellers at the present time.

The Pre-Long Beach Fall Sale 2002 by Superior Galleries realized $1.4 million. This sale was held September 23-24 in Beverly Hills. We have a listed a few of the highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" Trade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing last month; "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

95% of all orders will be shipped on or before the 5th working day after receipt and will be sent FedEx or Registered Mail

Please specify Delivery Preference:

☐ FedEx or ☐ U.S. Mail (Registered)

For customer satisfaction, speed and safety, orders with a street address are returned via 2-day FedEx. You must furnish an exact street address and telephone number for FedEx service. Registered Mail will be used for orders with a PO box address. Please see the below insurance rates. Our insurance will not allow us to make indirect deliveries, address changes or forwarding. Return shipments outside the continental United States require an additional $10 fee. Unless otherwise stipulated, PCI and its representatives will have rights to photograph the coins submitted and use of those photographs.

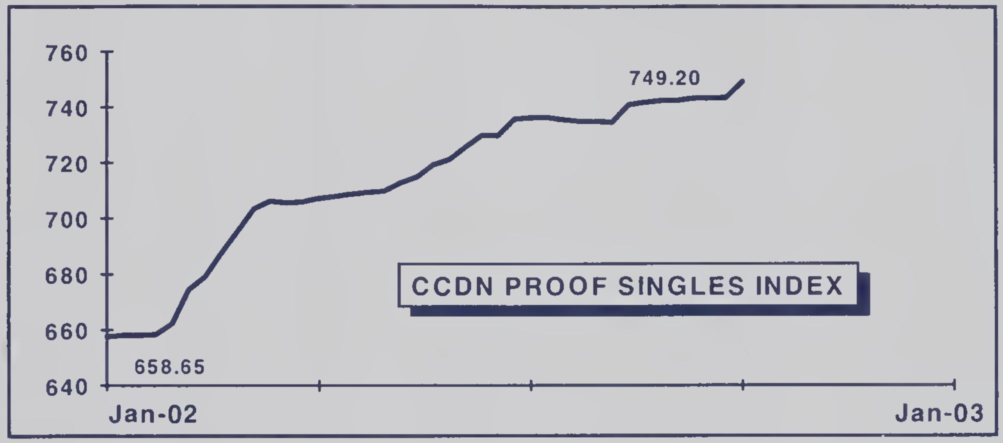
Proof Singles Dominate Sight-Unseen Market
Popular Designs Remain A Target

October begins optimistically with the sight-unseen market on the positive side with the plus/minus count at 190 to 33. Dealers that exited the Long Beach Expo also felt optimistic about the rare coin market. Many of them in attendance said that they had excellent shows. They believe that the market was "very active" with plenty of business to go around. On the negative side, dealers said that buying was somewhat difficult and it took a lot of money to be a successful buyer. Dealers still wanted to buy more coins at the show than they were able to find. Consequently, they are now back at home still trying to buy coins to satisfy customer want lists as well as orders that they received at the show.



This week's strong plus/minus count is biased heavily by Proof Singles. Just check out the 132 to 1 plus/minus count. Demand for Proof Buffalo Nickels, Mercury Dimes and Walking Liberty Half Dollars is exceptional! Many dealers that we spoke with at Long Beach said that strong demand is in place for these popular Proofs. Similar demand is seen targeting the early Proof Sets from 1936 thru 1942. Interested buyers are eager to take either NGC or PCGS examples. However, we are observing very strong demand for NGC Proof Singles. You may note that in most cases concerning Proof Singles, both NGC and PCGS encapsulated coins are trading at about the same level. Now we are seeing that, in some cases, NGC is receiving stronger Bids than for PCGS. The bottom line is that dealers desperately need to buy Proof Singles to satisfy an overwhelming demand. The percentage increase for the majority of these Proofs is also rather substantial. Most issues with plus signs depict an increase of approximately 5 percent or better this week alone. The year-to-date increase for the entire series as seen in the index graph above is equally significant.

Each of these three denominations — Nickel, Dime and Half Dollar has extremely popular designs and each of these denominations has a small run of Proofs compared to the total number of years that the design was struck. This is a case where the baby boomer generation has now matured and has become an important factor to the demand. These individuals can remember filling Blue Books when they were a kid. Today, many of them find themselves in a position, financially, where they can afford to buy many of the rare coins that they always wanted to have when they were children. They are buying 1909-S VDB and 1914-D Lincoln Cents; 1937-D 3-Legged Buffalo Nickels; 1916-D Mercury Dimes; 1916 Standing Liberty Quarters; and, 1921-S Walking Liberty Half Dollars with a vengeance. Consequently, a portion of this demand is also chasing the exquisite Proof examples of their most preferred designs they grew up with.

Morgan Dollars are also in the spotlight this week in the sight-unseen market. Demand for generic Morgans is taking home top honors this time. Carson City issues remain very much in demand for both certified and coins in original GSA holders. However several supporting Bids at very high levels remain in place this week instead of the usual dose of plus signs. Common date, NGC Morgan Dollars are slightly higher in MS65, matching PCGS Bid at $66. Also, NGC MS67 Dollars are now receiving a $470 Bid, just $5 shy of the PCGS level. Otherwise, Morgan and Peace Dollars are receiving a large number of supporting Bids this week. Silver and Gold Commemoratives are also doing well in the supporting Bid category. The San Diego issues are doing even better with several plus signs. Dealers tell us that many collector/investors are currently working on sets of Commemoratives. Although we don't see any plus signs this week for Mint State and Proof Type, we do know that several collectors are actively looking to buy Type for their collections. We know that generic Gold was in demand at Long Beach. However, until Gold Spot breaks out of its narrow $315-$325 per ounce trading range, bullion sensitive Mint State Gold will most likely remain near current levels. Some weakness is seen targeting the Mercury Dime series this week. However, this shouldn't alarm too many because it is only a few late dates of the series with very minor decreases. We know that strong demand is focusing on the tough key and semi-key dates as well as some of the more popular late date high grade, Full Band examples.

95% of all orders will be shipped on or before the 5th working day after receipt and will be sent FedEx or Registered Mail

Please specify Delivery Preference:

☐ FedEx or ☐ U.S. Mail (Registered)

For customer satisfaction, speed and safety, orders with a street address are returned via 2-day FedEx. You must furnish an exact street address and telephone number for FedEx service. Registered Mail will be used for orders with a PO box address. Please see the below insurance rates. Our insurance will not allow us to make indirect deliveries, address changes or forwarding. Return shipments outside the continental United States require an additional $10 fee. Unless otherwise stipulated, PCI and its representatives will have rights to photograph the coins submitted and use of those photographs.

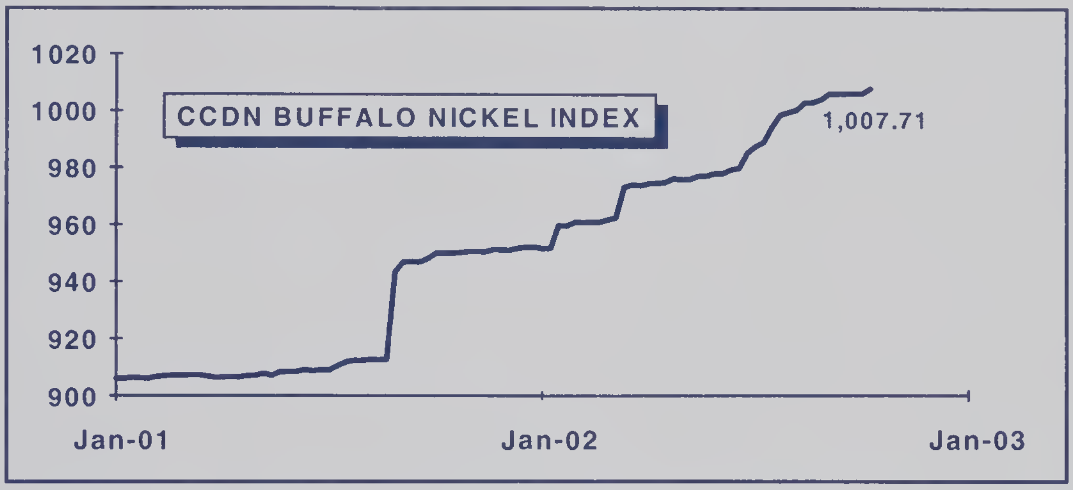
Buffalo Nickels Realize Strong Gains
San Diego Commems Continue To Rise

It is becoming more apparent that dealers are still having trouble keeping up with the strong demand. October is off and running and we know that most dealers are still feeling pretty good about the state of the rare coin market. This is in sharp contrast to the dismal performance being turned in by our economy. Investors who had funds salted away in the stock market have watched the value of their portfolios decrease precipitously throughout 2002. The weak economy coupled with the war on terrorism has not helped to brighten their spirits. Rare coins may help in this department. Collecting rare coins provides many with a healthy diversion offering peace and solitude. It's an activity that's calming and relaxing. Interesting dates and denominations of years gone by have helped to soothe some of the problems that we face today. Many have found collecting rare coins to be an excellent way to relieve stress. Collecting coins is an enjoyable activity that can be performed individually, with friends or family members. The explosion of information that is readily accessible to rare coin enthusiasts has also provided a boost to a collector base that is widening each day.



Dealers are actively trying to buy select dates at the New Silver Dollar Show "2002" in St. Louis, that is already in progress. Dealers have been trying to fill customer's ever growing want lists as quickly as they can. Unfortunately, their customers have also been adding to these lists at an accelerating rate. They need material to feed the current demand and Bidding in the sight-unseen market is one way for them to add rare coins fast. This scenario has been taking place throughout much of 2002 and this is why the sight-unseen market has been so active. We are witnessing sight-unseen Bids reaching the four- and five-figure level. For example, five-figure sight-unseen Bids have become rather routine for $20 Saint-Gaudens High Reliefs and $4 Proof Stellas. Now, we are regularly seeing strong sight-unseen Bids for several other high priced rare coins in the Circulated, Mint State and Proof Type areas. Proof Gold Type, besides Stellas, is even attracting some strong Bids in October. Sight-unseen Bids are evident in other areas of the market as well. Silver Commemoratives are generating interest for coins that collectors on a tight budget can readily identify with, especially when it's related to a place they live or used to live. Plus signs are found in several Uncirculated grades of the two San Diego Silver Half Dollars for the second week in a row. Increases are occurring from MS61 thru Gem condition. Still, even in MS65 these attractive coins are reasonably priced near the $100 level. The affordability of many Gem quality Commems is an important reason why they are so popular today.

Buffalo Nickels have seen substantial Bid increases throughout 2002 and this activity continues in October. Dealers recognize this demand to be something special and they are trying to buy some of these coins for their customers. This week, strong percentage increases have been realized for just a few dates, as opposed to the large number of dates receiving plus signs over the past several months. Dealers are becoming more selective. Early Philadelphia Mint Buffaloes as well as some late dates are in demand. As you can see from our Buffalo chart, a few MS66 and better examples are receiving nice Bid jumps. Morgan Dollars have also been receiving some attention. Dealers are looking to add some semi-key dates to their inventory because they know that these dates are steady sellers in any market, especially one that's increasing. Prooflike Morgan Dollars are also benefiting from this strong demand. We see generic PL Dollars inching up again following last month's gains as collector/investor demand continues to grow. The high sight-unseen Bid for MS63PL Dollars is now at $50. Of course PL Dollars don't offer the reflectivity that DMPL Dollars offer but they are very attractive coins nonetheless. Capped Bust Half Dimes are increasing in the Mint State Type area although recent auction results caused some discounting to take place. Some discounting is also seen in Gold Type however High Reliefs are up in MS66.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Who Has the Greatest Set Collections? With the Certified Coin Registry You'll Find Out!

NGC "★" DESIGNATION BONUS!

The Registry features a ranking bonus for NGC coins with the NGC ★ eye appeal designation! Visit www. Collectors-Society.com for details!

One of the joys of collecting coins is knowing where you stand, in relation to other collectors who enjoy the same coins. There is no better place to enjoy this friendly competition than on the web with the Certified Coin Registry. The Registry has unique and revolutionary advantages for coin collectors of all levels, from expert to beginners.

IT'S ACCURATE. Our Registry ranking tables take into account grade, rarity, population, NGC "Star" designations, and other factors. The result? A fair, expert and numismatically accurate ranking of Registry sets.

IT'S EXPERT. Our Registry ranking tables were compiled through thousands of hours of research by top numismatic experts in each series.

IT'S INCLUSIVE. Accepting coins from the two major grading companies, NGC and PCGS.

IT'S FOR ALL COLLECTORS. Top to bottom, complete to just-started, all sets are ranked.

IT'S TRUSTWORTHY. The Registry is run by the experts at NGC, the most trusted professional certification company in numismatics.

IT'S PRIVATE AND SECURE. Our secure site allow only you to manage your Registry sets. We respect your privacy by giving you control of the name of your publicly viewed sets.

IT'S COMPREHENSIVE. The Registry is starting with late 19th and early 20th Century series and will soon expand to include all coin series.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

The Coin Collector's Survival Manual – Fourth Edition

by Scott A. Travers

BEFORE YOU MAKE YOUR NEXT COIN PURCHASE, TAKE A COMPLETE COURSE IN COIN BUYING AND SELLING FOR AS LITTLE AS $18.95.

"This is the book about the coin business you can't afford to be without." - NEWSWEEK
"One of the most important coin books ever written." - The New York Times
"Should be read before a single coin is bought - and read again and again!" - Coin World

UNPRECEDENTED SIX-TIME NUMISMATIC LITERARY GUILD AWARD WINNER

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

Order your copy of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual - Fourth Edition. 284 pages, dozens of sharp illustrations. (black & white and full color). For the price of $18.95, you can make a mint.

SCOTT A. TRAVERS ranks as one of the most powerful and influential coin dealers in the world. His name is familiar to readers everywhere as the author of six award-winning books on coins: How to Make Money in Coins Right Now, The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, One-Minute Coin Expert, The Insiders's Guide to U.S. Coin Values, Travers Rare Coin Investment Strategy, and The Investor's Guide to Coin Trading. His investment guide, Scott Travers' Top 88 Coins Over $100, has been called "the most important list of coin recommendations ever written" by COINage magazine. He is a contributing editor to COINage magazine and a contributor to other numismatic periodicals. Mr. Travers is editor of PCGS's landmark work The Official Guide to Coin Grading and Counterfeit Detection. His expert opinions have been sought by Barron's, Business Week, The Wall Street Journal, and the Federal Trade Commission. A frequent guest on television and radio talk shows and the host of how-to coin videos, Mr. Travers has gained an impressive reputation not only as a coin expert but also as a forceful consumer advocate for the coin buying public. He is president of Scott Travers Rare Coin Galleries, Inc. in New York City and gives seminars on coins around the country.

Strong Sight-Unseen Trading Continues

It has been another very active week for certified coins in the sight-unseen market place. Several transactions have occurred recently for coins valued in the 4- and 5-figure range. What is most impressive is that these coins changed hands sight-unseen. Dealers simply need certified coins in select grades. They are not as concerned with receiving mis-graded coins as they were only a few years ago. Most dealers that trade coins sight-unseen over the electronic dealer trading networks are generally pleased with the quality of coins they have been receiving. This type of trading arena also allows dealers to beef up inventory rather quickly, which is all so important in a moving market. On the other side of the equation they are thrilled to be able to sell coins rather efficiently without the complications of returns or late payments. It is not uncommon for dealers to retract their Bids just prior too or during a major coin convention. This does not appear to be the case as strong sight-unseen Bids have remained in place throughout several areas of the market even as the New Silver Dollar Show is underway in St. Louis. Several savvy coin businesses have divided up the tasks of attending shows, auctions, manning the storefront and participating on the dealer trading networks. Smaller dealers will often travel with their laptops and adjust their positions from the bourse floor or hotel room during the course of a show.

Along with the 69 advancing issues this week are quite a few minus signs. The majority of the issues declining have been recently sold at auction for a discount. This is a natural occurrence in a rising market as not all areas of the market share the same level of demand at the same time. What is unnatural is the ever increasing number of coins being sold in weekly internet auctions for below published sight-unseen Bid levels. Some of these coins are even being hammered for substantially less than multiple dealers are willing to pay for the same coins sight-unseen. This information is published under the Market column of the Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter on the fourth week of each month. Declining Silver Commems include the Arkansas PDS Sets in grades MS62 thru MS65 and Arkansas Type in NGC MS67. Issues that have made nice Bid jumps are Stone Mountains and Oregons which are up in grades MS65 and MS66. Higher sight-unseen Bids for Mercury Dimes are nowhere to be found. There has been some adjustments downward, particularly in the MS65FB grade. Select dates from 1937 thru 1944 are most effected. One notable decrease is for 1916-S Dimes in MS65FB which adjusted down $75 to $350. Walking Liberty Halves remain rock solid for both grading services with good underlying support for virtually every date and grade. This series has been performing quite well for most of this year. Proof Singles are doing very well for all denominations in grades Proof 64 and better. The only dark cloud hangs over Proof Franklin Halves dating 1954 to 1963. These later date Proof Franklins have been realizing a precipitous decline in months past as it appears dealers and collectors are focusing on the more desirable Deep Cameo Proofs. Proof Type remains active. This is a bell weather segment in rare coins that is strongly supported virtually throughout all issues. With the exception of a few high end Proof 66 and Proof 67 pieces that have moved down slightly, this segment remains healthy. Buffalo Nickels have been on a stampede to higher price levels for months. Our charts show that this rise to higher Bid levels may have reached a plateau and is now holding firm. Morgan and Peace Dollars are doing very well with wide spread Bid support throughout both series. Most price movements are conservatively upward with just a few decreases.

Most areas of the sight-unseen market have performed rather well this year as you can see from the CCDN Coin Market Index year-to-date chart above. The stand-outs are Buffalo Nickels up 56 points; Proof Singles up 86 points and Saint-Guadens up 39 points. Only four segments are down for the year, and only slightly – less than five points. The results of a grading service survey that was sent to members of the Professional Numismatists Guild (PNG) and Industry Council for Tangible Assets (ICTA) has been published on the PNG website. It appears as though the Numismatic Guarantee Corporation (NGC) received the highest marks, by being the sole grading service ranking superior under the turn around time category.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www cdnpublications com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 43 October 25, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Wanted: Gem Silver Commemoratives Market Consolidation Equals Hidden Strength

The sight-unseen market appears to be consolidating a bit after many months of increases throughout several areas of the market. Initially, this would make you think that dealers have enough coins for the time being, but we know better. For the most part, demand remains unsatisfied. One major player believes that there isn't much cash around. He thinks this is true because a lot of coins between $50 and $1,000 are currently sluggish in the sight-unseen market (in contrast, dealers see coins below $2,000 in strong demand in the sight-seen market). He sees his retail sales slowing causing him to back-off from Bidding as aggressively as he was only a few weeks ago. Could this market be cooling, or is consolidation a sign of strength? The lack of a large number of plus signs in many series doesn't necessarily point to market weakness. Supporting Bids are still plentiful. Sometimes, Bidders need to catch their breath while re-evaluating their specific needs. It is important to remember that the entire rare coin market is composed of many mini markets. We know that while one dealer may be experiencing a decrease in sales another may be finding it difficult to keep up with the demand. Often, it depends upon the number, quality and scope of one's inventory as well as his or her access to collector/investors looking to buy coins. These are some of the factors that help determine the health of each one's business.

The overall market is also greatly influenced by liquidity among other things. Economic concerns may cause potential buyers of coins to hold back. In turn, dealers may decide to lower or even remove select Bids. It may also increase their willingness to discount more coins. Dealers want to buy coins as long as they know that these coins can be sold at a profit and in a relatively reasonable period of time. That is why dealers keep track of their customer's interest level. Yes, we know that many coins are bought even though they aren't already sold or earmarked for a specific customer. However, prudent dealers know that select rare coins need to be bought when they become available because of their rarity and desirability. They also know that these coins may not be so easy to obtain when an order for one does appear. That's why dealers don't mind stocking key dates as well as other hot, premium quality, scarce and interesting items. Still, we realize that some dealers are facing liquidity problems as demand may decrease temporarily, exacerbated by auction bills that are coming due, etc. Dealers need ready cash to maintain or increase their Bids. Consequently, if they are cash poor they may be more susceptible to these temporary situations. When their sight-unseen Bids are hit, they need to be prepared to buy the coins and make payment. Market levels may become more volatile when liquidity is more problematic for dealers. Cash flow is an extremely important part of each one's business. Naturally, good strong credit is also necessary. Dealers that are more financially secure are able to chase down bargains during these periods and even increase their Bids for select issues.

However, those of you that think the sight-unseen market is heading south may still want to reconsider that perception. Look at the action among Silver Commems this week. Keep in mind that if you take away the Silver Commem plus signs, the plus/minus count is much closer at 38/60. Still, those dealers specializing in Silver Commemoratives may strongly disagree with anyone that thinks that this market is cooling. Demand is strong and the Bids are equally strong. Some Commems are realizing rather significant increases. Dealers are mainly targeting coins grading MS65 thru MS67. High quality gem examples are in strong demand by collector/investors. Many believe that quality Commems are a bargain, even at current levels. While there is some discounting occurring, the majority of the discounting is taking place in other areas of the market. Gold Commems are one example of that discounting. Dealers needing cash know that selling coins at a discount is an easy way to raise funds. Often, those coins that are sub-par or "ugly" for the grade are the most likely candidates for this type of activity. Several of these types of coins have been sold recently in weekly internet auctions as you can see from the number of "a" symbols found in this week's Market column. Many of these coins are even being hammered at far below current sight-unseen Bids as found on the electronic dealer trading networks.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer–to–dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows, and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales–related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the *w*eek prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" – *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" Trade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight–unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

3 MORE REASONS WHY NGC IS THE UNDISPUTED LEADER IN THE COIN GRADING INDUSTRY

The Certified Coin Registry

The Registry offers a dynamic system for collectors to enjoy friendly competition while assembling remarkable collections. The Registry's fair, expert and numismatically accurate ranking system is truly unique. It accounts for several important factors including grade, rarity, population and the NGC "star" designation for exceptional eye appeal. Accepting coins from the two relevant grading services NGC and PCGS, the Certified Coin Registry is the most inclusive program of its kind. Visit Collectors-Society.com for more information.

Sight-Unseen Market Heats-Up November Buffaloes, Walkers, Pr. Singles & Type Attract Bidders

Some dealers have noticed that the rare coin market may have taken a break for the last few weeks. Discounting coupled with fewer plus signs had been occurring. A few believed that slower sales caused them to reduce or even remove some Bids. However, others didn't notice any serious cash flow disruption in the market at all. Still, dealers have had some trouble just keeping up with the fast pace that the market is demanding. A more quiet period was certainly expected as no market goes straight up or straight down without some corrections along the way. And while a few astute dealers noticed the lull in the market, it was certainly short-lived. These dealers now say that the general trend of the market is still very good. They say that their retail customers, some which had been preoccupied with other activities, are now back looking to buy rare coins with a vengeance. They say that demand and customer interest in buying rare coins is still very strong. Collectors are buying because they enjoy putting their hard earned money in something that makes them feel good. They are also pleased with the increasing value of the rare coins that they purchased over the past few years. This increase is in sharp contrast to the decreasing value that their stock portfolios sustained during the same period. What are these collectors buying and what are they looking to achieve from their acquisitions? Dealers tell us that today's buyers are carefully choosing select issues for their collections. They understand the pitfalls and challenges that collecting rare coins entails. Overwhelmingly they want to buy "collector coins." They are buying coins that make sense when it comes to valuation. The scope of this demand is extremely wide, ranging from Half Cents through Morgan Dollars. Gold also plays an important role in the interest of collectors. Many are trying to complete evenly graded series sets. Others are building Type sets. All seem to want coins that they can really appreciate and share with family and friends.

Strong demand for coins means that dealers need to get busy. Consequently, dealers tell us that the sight-unseen market is very healthy. We continue to see a number of transactions taking place, dealer-to-dealer and sight-unseen. Rare coins are changing hands at a rapid pace in an attempt to keep up with demand. Besides the trades that are occurring at current levels, a few dealers are challenging the demand problem by increasing their sight-unseen Bids. Plus signs are appearing for NGC, PCGS and even some ANACS certified coins. This week, the few areas receiving discounting are relatively small compared to the number of Bid increases. Check the large number of plus signs appearing for Buffalo Nickels, Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Proof Singles. Also, don't miss the increased Bids for Red Copper Type in Proof and Mint State. Half Cents, Large Cents, Indian Cents and 2-Cent pieces are all participating. Morgan Dollars are led by the increasing Bids for the scarce 1879-CC issues. Obviously, demand has forced dealers to up the ante to buy the coins that they need.

What can we say about Buffalo Nickels? This series has been among the leaders throughout 2002. The focus continues to be among coins graded MS64 and better. According to one dealer, the "Buffalo Nickels are an overheated area." However, dealers have clients trying to buy select dates keeping demand strong and Bids moving higher. Walking Liberty Halves, like Buffalo Nickels, are extremely popular among collectors. Each has an attractive design as well as a number of rarities to challenge collectors. We see demand targeting high quality, MS65 thru MS67 Half Dollars from 1934-1947. Those collectors on a budget know that an attractive gem Walker can be bought for $2,000 or less. They also know that some dates are not exactly common, like a 1934-D in MS66, but it is still relatively affordable. Buffaloes, Mercury Dimes, early Washington Quarters and Walking Liberty Halves are all up in Proof this week. Proof 64 and better are the grades of choice as dealers try to find quality examples for their customers.

These are also some of the coins that dealers will be looking to buy at the Baltimore Coin & Currency Convention November 7-10 (Dealer set-up on the 7th) in Maryland. This is usually an active show with excellent proximity to the surrounding metropolitan areas.

95% of all orders will be shipped on or before the 5th working day after receipt and will be sent FedEx or Registered Mail

Please specify Delivery Preference:

☐ FedEx or ☐ U.S. Mail (Registered)

For customer satisfaction, speed and safety, orders with a street address are returned via 2-day FedEx. You must furnish an exact street address and telephone number for FedEx service. Registered Mail will be used for orders with a PO box address. Please see the below insurance rates. Our insurance will not allow us to make indirect deliveries, address changes or forwarding. Return shipments outside the continental United States require an additional $10 fee. Unless otherwise stipulated, PCI and its representatives will have rights to photograph the coins submitted and use of those photographs.

Higher Sight-Unseen Bids Target Proofs Want Lists Make The Rounds In Baltimore

The rare coin market may be receiving a boost from a rather unexpected source. Most dealers agree that the current rare coin market is doing quite well, however it doesn't hurt to get an added shot in the arm. One dealer that we spoke with is encouraged about the attitude of today's buyers. The recent rebound in the stock market has translated into greater confidence from potential buyers of rare coins. "When people feel good, they're more apt to buy." We know that many customers buy rare coins with discretionary income. This dealer also says that many Americans have already digested most of the negative political and economic problems facing society. As people begin to feel better about the future, they're more willing to buy rare coins in the present. Strong demand for rare coins by collectors is directing the actions of dealers. This optimism is expected to carry over to Maryland as many dealers will be attending the Baltimore Coin & Currency Convention November 7-10. This show is welcomed as it helps dealers meet the upcoming special demands of the holiday season that's just around the corner. It also allows them to fill some want list needs of anxious customers. Dealers tell us that many customers are working on sets of coins by series and Type. They are especially attracted to competing with fellow collectors in building "registry sets." Many of these collector/investors have ambitious goals and the financial means in which to achieve them. Dealers assist these customers while they try to improve their rapidly depleting inventory levels. They continue to say how extremely difficult it is to buy fresh coins.

This week's sight-unseen market reflects this strong need for coins. It points to the selectivity of dealer's needs. It also depicts a rare coin market that is as solid today, if not stronger, as it was at the beginning of the year. Dealers that don't regularly participate in the sight-unseen market have observed, at coin shows, strong demand for coins at the lower-end of the price spectrum. They hear these sight-unseen dealers complaining about the lack of available product. They hear them say that there just aren't enough coins. This is certainly a major concern for all those that participate in the market.

What are dealers looking to buy in the first full week of November? Strong Bids are being offered for Matte Proof Buffalo Nickels. Buffaloes have been a very popular area of the market throughout 2002. Quality Proof examples are receiving increased sight-unseen Bids. Dealers increased Bids for NGC and PCGS PR64 thru PR67 examples. Some astute dealers are Bidding more for select Mint State issues certified by NGC. They believe that several NGC examples are undervalued compared to their PCGS counterparts. Proof Singles are hot! There's no doubt about it as demand continues to force Bids higher. Proof Mercury Dimes and Walking Liberty Half Dollars are the target this week. Dealers are looking to buy examples, sight-unseen, in PR64 thru PR67. However, several minus signs are appearing for late date Franklins.

Key dates have been among the highlights in the sight-seen market and some of that demand is spilling over to the sight-unseen market. Bids are increasing for the collector favorite 1909-S VDB Lincoln Cent. Increases are seen for NGC and PCGS examples grading MS62 thru MS65. Besides the plus and minus signs, we continue to see a lot of supporting Bids for many areas of the sight-unseen market. Silver Commems are receiving supporting Bids at current levels. Dealers need Commems for the many customers working on sets. Silver Commems are a fun and relatively affordable way to collect a diverse group of designs in Uncirculated condition. Morgan Dollars are also receiving support. Buyers are still chasing the keys and "CC" Mints of this popular series. Bids for Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Buffalo Nickels are solid, also a result of supporting Bids. These are two areas of the market that continue to impress dealers. Mint State and Proof Type are two other areas that continue to receive collector attention. Dealers are always looking to buy Type for their inventory and want lists. Gold Type is solid despite a relatively flat bullion spot. High Reliefs in MS62 are Bid higher this week with the balance of grades realizing supporting Bids.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

If you have coins to sell, it's time to call SPECTRUM! Dealing with SPECTRUM means more money and less hassle for you, and here's why:

The clients of The King of Cash are having another record year! Our needs are so diverse and our buying interests are so extensive that we've purchased single coins for under $4 and for over $1,000,000. Why are customers bringing us coins in record numbers? Because they know they're dealing with world-class rare coin experts with unlimited financial resources. Because they know they'll be treated fairly and courteously. Because they know we have other customers waiting for their coins in all ranges of the price spectrum. Because they know they'll always receive same-day payment. Collectors, investors, dealers, and financial institutions alike know the Spectrum secret, and now so do you. If you're interested in selling some or all of your rare coin holdings, why would you want to go anywhere else?

The principal buyers at Spectrum have over 150 years of combined numismatic experience. Our buyers are seasoned veterans in all areas of numismatics, and they know what your coins are worth. Is your collection a specialized selection of 18th century rarities? A large holding of modern proof coins? An estate that was left to you by a loved one? An accumulation that has been in the family for years? A dealer inventory? Rare coin properties come in hundreds of different forms, and Spectrum is interested in purchasing them all!

Dealing with Spectrum is always as fast, confidential and convenient as you need it to be. We can travel to see you, meet you at our offices, or make an appointment with you for the next coin show in your area. We can also do the entire transaction by mail, as we do hundreds of times each year.

Here's what one of our many satisfied customers had to say recently about selling coins to Spectrum:

I was very pleased with your offer. I also appreciated being spared the "critical analysis" most dealers feel they must go through before making an offer. I'm just sorry I didn't try your firm long ago. I'm convinced after my first sale to you that Spectrum is the place to go if you want honesty and fair dealing.

Spectrum has a commitment to customer satisfaction that is unsurpassed in the rare coin industry. Let us help you realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you.

The Spotlight Is Shinning On Gold Increases Target NGC Coins

The politically and highly charged Iraqi situation taking place in the United Nations has had an effect on Gold Spot. However the recent fluctuations in Spot have failed to negate the exceptional demand for Gold coins that dealers have been experiencing. This demand was widespread at the Baltimore Coin & Currency Convention in Maryland and this demand has carried over to the sight-unseen market. Dealers have received a lot of orders from customers wanting to buy Gold. Many of them are looking to buy Gold coins as insurance to mitigate today's economic uncertainty. Many factors are contributing to today's uneasiness and people generally feel more secure having some of the precious yellow metal on hand. The possibility of war has only added to this demand. Psychologically, people believe in the safety and liquidity of Gold. One east coast dealer said, "Gold (coins) has a greater perceived liquidity than non Gold coins." A dealer on the west coast echoed similar sentiments by saying that "demand is up for all Gold coins." Dealers have especially noticed strong overseas demand for U.S. Gold coins. The majority of buyers are looking for Gold in the Double Eagle denomination.

One dealer believes that select rare date Saints are under-priced at current levels compared to the prices of their generic brethren. These dealers are receiving several strong orders for dated $20 Saint-Gaudens in Mint State condition. Dealers on both coasts are actively trying to accommodate the needs of their customers. Consequently, higher sight-unseen Bids are in place throughout the Saint-Gaudens series this week. Dealers are looking to buy NGC and PCGS certified examples. Dealer are still paying a premium of $25 for MS65 and $50 for MS66 for 1908 No Motto Saints certified with the Wells Fargo pedigree. This week's Saint chart offers an explosion of plus signs. Dealers are buying for inventory as well as for their customers. They tell us that they just can't keep enough coins in stock at the present time. Besides the better date Saints dealers also tell us that demand is growing for Proof Gold.

Another observation about the sight-unseen market is the recent interest and strong Bidding taking place for coins certified by NGC. Dealers have been telling us for quite some time that there just isn't enough product available. Therefore some dealers have seen the imbalance in Bids between NGC and PCGS coins and consider some of them to be undervalued. In addition to the higher Bids for Saints, increases are seen for NGC certified Buffalo Nickels, Mint State Type and Proof Type. The lack of an adequate supply is driving dealers to look at the market with a broader prospective thus triggering higher NGC Bids. We see that Buffalo increases are for a wide range of dates in the teens and twenties in grades from MS63 thru MS66. Many felt that it was only a matter of time before the NGC Buffaloes would appear to be too enticing of an opportunity. Other areas also seem to be undervalued. Interest for NGC Proof Type is occurring. Plus signs are being posted for the Liberty Seated series from Half Dimes thru Dollars. Proof Barber Quarters and Half Dollars are also higher this week. These are coins that have strong collector/investor demand and appeal. Proof Morgan and Trade Dollars have similar appeal and are experiencing strength. Mint State Type is another area of the market receiving increased Bids for NGC coins. Here, dealers have increased Bid for 3-Cent Silvers; Liberty Seated Half Dimes; Dimes and Quarters; Capped Bust Half Dimes; and Barber Quarters. This diverse demand is a perfect example of today's strong need for product.

Bowers and Merena conducted the sale of the Russell J. Logan & Gilbert G. Steinberg collection November 6-9 in Baltimore. The auction realized $7.4 million. Above we have listed a few highlights for certified coins. Dealers will be traveling to Northern California to participate in the Santa Clara Expo November 21-24. Heritage will be conducting a Signature sale of over 3,500 lots in conjunction with the show.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN COINS RIGHT NOW, 2ND EDITION

by SCOTT A. TRAVERS

"Don't go to a coin dealer without reading this book first."
– Hank Gilman, Business Editor, NEWSWEEK

"If making money by buying and selling coins is your game, Scott Travers' How to Make Money in Coins Right Now is a must-read. As an insider, he puts you on the playing field with the pros. Chapter by chapter, he reveals strategies for being a winner."
– Beth Deisher, Editor, Coin World

"The most valuable book ever written on how to profit from coins."
– Ed Reiter, Senior Editor, COINage magazine

"A revolutionary book."
– Armen R. Vartian, Legal Counsel, Professional Numismatists Guild

"A no-holds barred examination of insider secrets that can be used for startling, quick profits. Stands alone as the most penetrating guide of its kind ever published."
– Maurice Rosen, Rosen Numismatic Advisory

Ultimate insider Scott Travers shows you the tricks of the trade with clear examples of how you, too, can outsmart the grading services. You'll get information never revealed before from experts who have handled hundreds of millions of dollars worth of rare coins. Here are just some of the many topics covered:

The Rarities Keep Rolling In!

FOR SUPERIOR'S JANUARY 6, 2003 ELITE COIN AUCTION (just prior to F.U.N.)

✔ The David Wallace Collection of Proof Morgan Dollars

This collection of complete Proof Morgan Dollars (1878-1921) was carefully assembled over the last 15 years, with the average grade of his basic set registering an amazing 66.77! Highlights include an 1878 Seven Tailfeathers Reverse of 1828 in Proof 65, an 1895 in Proof 66, a 1921 Chapman in Proof 65 and a 1921 Zerbe in Proof 66.

✔ The Milwaukee Cabinet Collection

This tremendous collection consists of material that has not seen the marketplace in more than 25 years, with the last coin added in the early-to-mid 1970s! Includes numerous B. Max Mehl coins, including some from his 50th Anniversary gala in 1950! The vast majority were housed in original envelopes and original Wayte Raymond album boards! Auctioned over three sales: The first part in our January 6, 2003 Elite Coin Auction in Orlando, Florida (just prior to the F.U.N. Show); the second part in our February 23-25, 2003 Pre-Long Beach Auction in Beverly Hills, California, and the third part in our April 4-6, 2003 Elite Coin Auction, the official coin auction of the Santa Clara Show in Santa Clara, California. CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 47 November 22, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Market Knowledge Can Save You Money Bids Increase For "CC" & "S" Mint Morgans

Last week the sight-unseen market was noticeably stronger for NGC coins. Dealers have been actively trying to buy rare coins to beef-up their inventory as well as finding those elusive want list items. Value is extremely important to dealers and it is often value that they pursue when finalizing a purchase. Consequently, they are taking advantage of the discrepancies in price among coins that they believe to be at same grade level, even though they are certified by different companies. This week, that trend continues although most of the strength occurring is via supporting Bids. Still, these supporting Bids are at the new, higher levels that were established last week. Also, the sight-unseen market remains strong this week despite some discounting and the fact that many dealers are in California to attend the Santa Clara Expo.

Strong sight-unseen Bidding this week for Morgan Dollars has demonstrated the underlying strength of this popular series. As you would expect, the Carson City issues are highly sought-after. After a brief respite, plus signs abound for all but two Carson City dates in NGC and PCGS. Bids are increasing because dealers have buyers waiting for these extremely popular "CC" minted Dollars. Mint State 63 and MS64 are receiving the majority of the plus signs with DMPL examples in these grades also in demand. However plus signs are also targeting the difficult to find San Francisco semi-keys. Peace Dollars have a few plus signs but minus signs are seen for common dates in MS65.

Most of you are quite familiar with our Bid columns, which provide the reader with the highest sight-unseen dealer-to-dealer Bid in the coin market. These sight-unseen Bids are usually found on the electronic dealer trading networks and must be honored by member dealers. Every fourth week we publish the market column which also provides subscribers with valuable information that, when used properly, can save or make them money. Recently, Commemoratives, Dollars, Gold and Type have sold at auction for below current sight-unseen Bids. How many times have you seen a price realized at auction that sold for less than the sight-unseen Bid? If you said too many then you know how important it is to understand this situation so it doesn't adversely affect your business. You may ask how is this possible? Under the Market column the "a" designates an auction price realized with buyer's commission for a specific coin or Type coin in a specific grade that has taken place within the last month. If the auction price realized is less than the last known sight-unseen Bid, then this price forces a new, lower Bid. Sometimes this situation induces a dealer to post a higher sight-unseen Bid. Yet, if an auction price realized transaction occurs below an active sight-unseen Bid, then the higher sight-unseen Bid takes precedence. Obviously, some haven't been doing their homework. Many auction lots have virtually lost money and in some cases the amount of the loss can be considerable. Consequently when you see an auction price in our Market column that is below Bid, someone failed to maximize the sales potential of that coin. How much you lose depends on the difference between the price realized and the highest, active sight-unseen Bid. When you also consider the fee paid to the auction house for the sale of the coin, that difference is even greater and it can become a very expensive lesson. Therefore it is prudent for any dealer, vest-pocket dealer or collector/investor to understand, and utilize all the information that is available when buying or selling rare coins. This is the right road to take if you are looking to maximize your trading activities. It pays to educate yourself before you buy or sell as the money that you leave on the table will be gladly scooped-up by someone who has done their homework. Many coins are sold without checking the Bluesheet first to find the highest sight-unseen Bid that will be paid for a particular certified rare coin or the most recent auction, trade or dealer Asking price. Remember, active sight-unseen Bids are crucial to your pending sale so it behooves you to explore the networks and the Bluesheet before you sell. That way you can protect yourself by placing a more responsible and sensible reserve on your coins.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" - Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" - *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" - Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" - auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Hot Winter For Coin Market
Common Date Morgans & Walkers Increase

Dealers are concluding November with good feelings about the rare coin market. Those dealers that traveled to Santa Clara to attend the Expo in California from November 21-24 were not disappointed. That's because the show is growing and most dealers were encouraged by the public attendance and the business that was being done there. The only complaint that we hear is that not enough rare coins are available for them to buy. Many of the dealers had want lists to fill and needed coins to beef-up their inventories but were unable to do so. Others told us that nice coins were being bought on the bourse at prices over Bid, but rather than bring them home they were resold on the bourse for a quick profit. Obviously, business was taking place on the bourse at the Santa Clara Coin, Stamp and Collectibles Expo. However, those dealers that were trying to buy coins found the going very rough. They really had to work to be able to buy a few nice coins. After a nice coin or two was located, it took strong money to own it. Still, dealers were willing to pay top dollar because they need the coins for their anxious clients. Consequently, they didn't want to go home empty handed.

Last week, we discussed dealer's opinions that the market was beginning a consolidation phase. While some dealers still adhere to this forecast, others clearly do not. Many dealers believe that the rare coin market hasn't skipped a beat. They say that business has never been better and the future of the market appears equally bright. One dealer pointed out the market strength by observing the activity for Carson City Mint coinage. He said that circulated "CC" coins are "incredibly strong." He went on to say that just about anything with a "CC" Mintmark on it is in strong demand. He said that over the past few years, common date Liberty Seated coins in nice circulated grades have been increasing. However, these strong common date Bid levels have made the better dates and "CC" dates comparatively undervalued. This discrepancy has not gone unnoticed as Bids for "CC" and other scarce dates and varieties have been increasing. The Bust Dollar series is another area that is experiencing a similar pattern. He said select scarce dates and varieties haven't increased to the same degree that the common dates have and so they are extremely undervalued at the present time. For example, select circulated dates such as the 1799/8, 1800 "AMERICAI" and 1803 (Large and Small 3) are some of the issues that are undervalued compared to the more commonly seen dates. Dealers tell us that buyers are more focused today, looking to acquire better value rare coins. For example, better date Gold is being scooped up off the market by collector/investors at current levels because they believe it is under-priced. Many of these buyers aren't looking to sell these coins in a few years but rather put them away for the long term.

All this demand carries over to the sight-unseen market as well. Therefore, we see that the sight-unseen market is solid at current levels. Many areas of the market are receiving supporting Bids. Walking Liberty Half Dollars, for example, are realizing many supporting Bids at current levels. Walkers have been strong with buyers trying to obtain select dates and grades. Dealers are now willing to pay, sight-unseen, a new higher Bid of $135 for any NGC or PCGS MS66 Walking Liberty Half Dollar. Quantities are needed as dealers have customers waiting for coins. Similar strength is also taking place in the Morgan Dollar market. A new, higher sight-unseen Bid is in place for common date Morgans graded MS66 at $155. Again, for either NGC or PCGS graded coins. Quantities are also needed in this series just as in the Walker series. Dealers tell us that new collectors are still entering the market. This only adds to the supply and demand imbalance and puts additional upward pressure on price. Sight-unseen support is also active among Buffalo Nickels, Mint State Type, Proof Type, Silver and Gold Commems and Proof Singles. Bidding is also improving for Mercury Dimes and Mint State Gold Type.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES

If your coin will stand on its own merits regardless of the certified grade, a higher CDN Bid may be more indicative of current market value.

Active Sight-Unseen Trading Continues
Strong Demand Targets Dollars & Large Cents

Dealer sentiment about the rare coin market is definitely positive. Overall, many are very happy with the market and its outlook for the future. According to one mid-west dealer, he is very "pleased with the demand" for coins. He says that there is more demand today than he has seen in quite some time. For him, increased volume is the reason why business is so good. This buying is being spread over a wide range of series and categories. Interest is strong for late 18th century coinage thru today's modern issues. Dealers know that it's the modern issue explosion that's stimulating strong buying into earlier, proven rarities. One dealer gave three reasons for the surge in today's frenetic activity. First, he said that current low interest rates benefit new collectors by allowing them to diversify some funds into buying rare coins. Secondly, the volatile activity on Wall Street has investors heading for the exits with the hope of finding some greater financial stability in rare coins. Finally, he believes that recent government promotions and advertising of U.S. Mint products have increased the general awareness of coins to the public. These conditions have been responsible for the precipitous increase in the collector base that we are experiencing. Specifically, he mentioned the State Quarter program, Sacagawea Dollar and the modern Commemoratives as the stimulus. All these factors have helped to feed a thriving sight-unseen market.

Dollars take the lead. A powerful demand continues to rage for Silver Dollars. Dealers tell us that many new collectors and well-seasoned collectors are putting their money in Morgan and Peace Dollars. Dealers are selling a lot of Dollars from common date circulated examples thru superb Gem rarities. Some people are buying common date circulated examples in 100-piece lots. Others want BU singles or BU rolls. Bid increased $1 to $67, sight-unseen, for MS65 common dates this week. We know that $1,000 circulated bags are also in strong demand. The more sophisticated collector/investors are putting together circulated and BU sets of certified Carson City Dollars. The extraordinary demand for 'CC' Dollars continues its impressive run with no let-up in sight. GSA CC's are also gaining this week. GSA common dates are receiving slightly higher Bids. The 1882-CC is now at $112 Bid, with the scarcer issues also increasing. The 1879-CC, 1885-CC and 1890-CC are tough to find and dealers are forced to increase their Bid. Dealers are also looking to buy select MS64 Peace Dollars. The huge price gap from MS64 to MS65 has lured many collector/investors interested in buying coins that they consider to be undervalued. However, it's not just Morgan and Peace Dollars that are needed. Flowing Hair and Draped Bust Dollars are also facing strong demand. Dealers tell us that they are trying to buy coins in VG thru VF to satisfy the demand. Mint State examples are scarce and expensive, but also in demand. Unfortunately, it is getting tougher and tougher for dealers when it comes to finding and buying coins.

Dealers specializing in Silver Commemoratives believe the market is a little sluggish when compared to other segments of the market. However, it is still very difficult for them to buy select issues that are average or a little better for the grade. Some buyers of sight-unseen coins have been rather pleasantly surprised with the quality of coins they are receiving. Still, not all buys result in home runs. Some dealers tell us that they can't find anything right now while others are a little more successful. Among Silver Commems, they want MS64 and MS65 Hawaiian's, Missouri's (both), Monroe's, Sesquicentennial's and California's for their customers.

Type is receiving numerous supporting Bids for Circulated, Mint State and Proof issues. Increases have targeted the NGC Coronet and Braided Hair Large Cents in Mint State 65 thru MS67. Plus signs are appearing for select Brown and Red and Brown issues. Dealers tell us that these issues are just too cheap and are still an excellent value even at the new higher Bid levels.

95% of all orders will be shipped on or before the 5th working day after receipt and will be sent FedEx or Registered Mail

Please specify Delivery Preference:

☐ FedEx or ☐ U.S. Mail (Registered)

For customer satisfaction, speed and safety, orders with a street address are returned via 2-day FedEx. You must furnish an exact street address and telephone number for FedEx service. Registered Mail will be used for orders with a PO box address. Please see the below insurance rates. Our insurance will not allow us to make indirect deliveries, address changes or forwarding. Return shipments outside the continental United States require an additional $10 fee. Unless otherwise stipulated, PCI and its representatives will have rights to photograph the coins submitted and use of those photographs.

Generic, Prooflike, DMPL & CC Morgans Advance Early Lincoln Proofs Skyrocket!

Last week we wrote about the positive dealer sentiment evident in today's market. We know that many dealers remain optimistic about the market and its future. Demand continues to grow and so does that all important collector base. Unfortunately, inventory problems are still apparent as dealers do what they can to improve this situation. Keeping up with the strong and surging demand is difficult but that's what needs to take place for dealers to be successful. They also need to stay on top of the latest Bids as prices have been extremely volatile. Those that choose to ignore current Bids may find themselves loosing money to someone who is paying attention. Dealers need coins so they have been actively increasing their Bids hoping to buy some. One northwestern dealer told us that his inventory is lower than he has seen it in the last 12 years. Morgan Dollars are among his special needs because he has many customers waiting to buy them. This has also been one of the most sought-after series especially the Carson City issues. Collectors continue to have a strong affinity with collecting the Morgan Dollar series. This series offers them many challenges along with several different ways to collect and assemble sets, intriguing many a collector. This dealer is increasing his Bid on hundreds of Morgans. Just look at the plus/minus count for Morgans this week. He says, "I need to raise Bids to buy product." He is targeting a large number of slightly better to scarce dates. We know that it's not only the rarest dates that are receiving the strong Bids. This dealer says that, "Anything that's not generic is becoming harder to find." Dealers like him believe that many select dates are just under-priced at current levels. He admits that there has always been a large disparity between the sight-unseen and the sight-seen market for Dollars. However that gap may be narrowing. According to him, ugly toned Dollars are still a problem and still at issue. Fortunately, "ugly" coins are disappearing from the market every day as they are being re-graded and returned in more appropriate holders. However, toned Dollars still play a large role in the Bid disparity. For a long time, toning was considered to be an asset. This is because the toning pointed to the coin's originality. Now, some collectors are afraid to buy toned Morgan Dollars because of the fear of getting a coin that has underlying problems. Secondly, the salability of dark or unattractively toned Dollars is very low. "Collectors want white coins." Dealers are trying to supply the kind of Morgan Dollars that collectors want. They are buying coins readily in the sight-unseen market and for the most part, are satisfied with the coins that they are receiving. The diversity of demand is also targeting generics with small increases. Prooflike and DMPL examples are also benefiting from the overall strong demand for Dollars.

Incredible Bidding is occurring this week for Proof, Red Lincoln Cents. The increases are rather substantial with many up more than 50 percent! However despite the sharp increase many dealers believe that they are still undervalued. One astute east coast dealer watched the steady increases throughout the year among Proofs of similar years for Dimes, Quarters and Half Dollars. He believes that the Lincoln Cents and the Nickels have been left out and that they are seriously undervalued. Collector interest for these Proof issues remains strong. We know that Red Lincoln Cent Proofs are very hot. Many of these Proofs have already been placed with collectors but dealers tell us that more is needed as collectors are still waiting to buy. The complication for dealers is the unavailability of product to buy. Will the sharp increases solve this complication?

Early Gold is another category that is making some noise this week. Demand for early Gold is specialized to those collector/investors who can afford this luxury. Yet, dealers tell us that demand for these rarities has been increasing. We see Bids increasing for $2.50 Capped Head, Large in AU58 and $5 Capped Head, reduced diameter in AU58 thru MS61. Key dates remain a favorite of collectors. Sight-unseen Bids have also increased for the popular 1909-S VDB Lincoln Cent and for 1932-D and 1932-S Washington Quarters.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 51 December 20, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Proof Jefferson Nickels Soar
Gold Bullion Closes Above $345

This is the last issue of the Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter for 2002. The next issue will be dated January 3, 2003. The CDN family of publications would like to wish you and your family a safe and joyous holiday.

Dealers are finishing the year on an extremely optimistic note. Interest and demand for rare coins continues to be very good. Coin shops around the nation are servicing their regular customers and at the same time trying to answer questions and give information to those individuals interested in Gold. That's because Gold bullion has broken through its narrow trading range ($315-$325) in dramatic fashion by climbing past $330 and selling readily above $340. Analysts and economists are quick to point to the many reasons for Gold's sharp increase at this time. The threat of war, weak dollar and economy, weak stock market and general world uncertainties are enough to warrant its sharp gain. However it is also interesting that high inflation, a usual catalyst for Gold has been left out of this mix. Could it be that Gold is giving us a warning of even tougher economic times ahead?

Rare coin dealers are doing their best to satisfy their customers strong interest in buying Gold. Mainly, they tell us that the American Eagle bullion coins are the first choice of new buyers. We know that these coins are a simple and easy way to buy Gold in quantity. It is also convenient because it allows customers to buy fractions of an ounce as well. Still, some of these buyers may choose to buy common date $20 Saint-Gaudens and Liberty coins as they contain nearly one ounce of the precious metal. Along with being very attractive coins, they have the added plus of being numismatic to accompany their intrinsic appeal. Demand for these coins is growing with dealers trying to fill orders and educate their customers. They know that a small percentage of bullion buyers will eventually become more serious rare coin collectors. This week, Mint State Type 3 Libs and Saints are Bid slightly higher. We know that the collector base has been in an uptrend throughout 2002 and dealers are expecting this trend to continue in 2003. The increase has mainly benefited from the release of the State Quarters and the Sacagawea Dollars. However, add to this equation the increasing value of Gold and that combination can be rather formidable. This demand and expected future demand means dealers have to get busy to stay on top of their business.

The sight-unseen market has played an important role for dealers. The need for coins has forced Bid increases in many market segments in 2002. As this is our final issue of the year, it's fitting that plus signs are appearing on our Morgan Dollar, Buffalo Nickel and Proof Single charts. These three areas of the market have done very well throughout the year and they remain strong right to the end. Morgan Dollar Bids are increasing, reflecting many dealer's opinions of the undervalued nature of select dates. Dealers know that these specific dates can easily be placed with customers if they are able to find and buy them. This week, dealers are targeting those Morgans from 1891 thru 1921 in grades from MS61 thru MS67. Increases are not only seen for semi-generic examples, but also for the more scarce dates as well. Semi-key dates such as 1892, 1892-CC, 1893, 1894, 1894-O, 1894-S, 1895-S, 1898-S and 1900-S are advancing. Buffalo Nickels have also done extremely well throughout 2002. It's no surprise that plus signs are seen in this final issue as well. Exceptional demand that has been fed by the registry sets has fueled the excitement for this series. Consequently, we are not surprised to see continued plus signs for tough dates in high grades. Increases are targeting many coins over $3,000, and several above the $10,000 mark this week. Some examples badly needed include the 1913-D Type 2, 1913-S Type 2, 1914-D, 1914-S, 1915-S, 1916-S, 1917-D, 1917-S and 1918. It is very difficult to locate these coins in grades above MS64 but that's what dealers are looking to buy. Strong percentage increases (many above 40 percent) are found among Proof Jefferson Nickels this week. This follows the strong gains made last week by Proof Cents. Like the Lincoln Cents, these are believed to be seriously undervalued.

NGC has announced that it will now grade Morgan Dollars in their original GSA holders beginning at the FUN show January 8-11 in Orlando. The grade will appear on a oversized label that will wrap around the GSA holder, in addition a tamper-evident seal will also be applied.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets.
Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COIN COLLECTOR'S SURVIVAL MANUAL
An Indispensable Guide for Collectors and Investors
FOURTH EDITION
Winner of 5 Awards from the Numismatic Literary Guild

NEW

The Coin Collector's Survival Manual – Fourth Edition

by Scott A. Travers

BEFORE YOU MAKE YOUR NEXT COIN PURCHASE, TAKE A COMPLETE COURSE IN COIN BUYING AND SELLING FOR AS LITTLE AS $18.95.

"This is the book about the coin business you can't afford to be without." - NEWSWEEK
"One of the most important coin books ever written." -The New York Times
"Should be read before a single coin is bought - and read again and again!" -Coin World

UNPRECEDENTED SIX-TIME NUMISMATIC LITERARY GUILD AWARD WINNER

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

Order your copy of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual - Fourth Edition. 284 pages, dozens of sharp illustrations. (black & white and full color). For the price of $18.95, you can make a mint.

SCOTT A. TRAVERS ranks as one of the most powerful and influential coin dealers in the world. His name is familiar to readers everywhere as the author of six award-winning books on coins: How to Make Money in Coins Right Now, The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, One-Minute Coin Expert, The Insiders's Guide to U.S. Coin Values, Travers Rare Coin Investment Strategy, and The Investor's Guide to Coin Trading. His investment guide, Scott Travers' Top 88 Coins Over $100, has been called "the most important list of coin recommendations ever written" by COINage magazine. He is a contributing editor to COINage magazine and a contributor to other numismatic periodicals. Mr. Travers is editor of PCGS's landmark work The Official Guide to Coin Grading and Counterfeit Detection. His expert opinions have been sought by Barron's, Business Week, The Wall Street Journal, and the Federal Trade Commission. A frequent guest on television and radio talk shows and the host of how-to coin videos, Mr. Travers has gained an impressive reputation not only as a coin expert but also as a forceful consumer advocate for the coin buying public. He is president of Scott Travers Rare Coin Galleries, Inc. in New York City and gives seminars on coins around the country.
